Congregation Hosts Circuit Supervisor

Leonard E. Olliff, presiding minister of the Torrance Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced preparations are under way for the coming visit of the Circuit Supervisor Vernon L. Pearson.

A week of special ministerial activity is planned in harmony with the 1966 theme of Jehovah's Witnesses, "Seek Peace and Pursue It."

Instruction to local ministers will be in the form of talks, demonstrations, and practical application in the house to house visitation ministry work.

Local presiding minister Olliff stated, "with the information gained during the activity for this week, Jehovah's Witnesses locally will continue to seek and pursue peace with all in the community."

Tuesday evening a Theocratic Ministry School for practical instruction on public speaking will commence. Following will be the service meeting emphasizing ways and means of carrying out the ministry work in this vicinity.

Saturday morning local ministers will assist residents of Torrance to "Seek Peace" through regular Bible Study. The group will return Saturday night for an instructive talk on "Wisely Calculating the Remaining Time."

Sunday's activity will include teaching work throughout the community and distribution of invitations to the final discourse to be given Sunday at 3 p.m. by Pearson. A timely answer will be given to the question "Seeking Peace with God and Man."
